

Internet Resources for Genealogy Research

Websites:

FamilySearch: Free records and free family tree maker.

Minnesota Death Certificate Index: Search death records from 1904-2001.

Minnesota Birth Certificate Index: Search birth records from 1900-1934.

Minnesota Veterans Graves Index: Search Veterans' graves from 1857-1975.

Rootsweb: Mostly free information on localities, family name societies, and historical societies.

MNGenWeb: Local Minnesota information on county and family pages. Alternate MNGenWeb site is available.

WorldGenWeb Project: Worldwide genealogy sharing project.

SortedByName: Master death index compiled from past Social Security numbers. Helpful for finding birth and death information as well as mother's maiden name.

National Archives: Helpful for retrieving historical background information as well as military records for direct relatives.

Minnesota Historical Society: Numerous links to family history resources; helpful tools for digging deeper. Some fees may apply for printouts or other services.

Charts and Forms

Free genealogy charts and forms from the National Archives and Ancestry.org.

National Archives: Charts and Forms

Ancestry.org: Charts and Forms

Tip for Google Translate: When searching using Chrome or copy and paste text to Google Translate, be mindful of family names that may translate into something strange.